Waconia 2012 Midwest Ride-In Registration

If you are bringing your vintage and antique snowmobiles (we sure hope you are), please fill in this side of the registration form also. If you will be participating in Sunday's show, we will return your registration packet with placards to display on your snowmobiles.

I plan on riding in Saturday's trail ride at 11:00 a.m. (Please circle one) YES NO
I plan on participating in Saturday's vintage and antique drag races. (Please circle one) YES NO
I plan on displaying in Sunday's show. (Please circle one) YES NO

Please note our "Unrestored" class is for machines that are mostly unrestored. The following itemized guidelines are for determining if your sled is "Unrestored" or "Restored". The volunteer judging committee will have final say as to whether your machine is properly classed. Sleds in the wrong class will not be judged. Sleds must be capable of running to be judged. Sleds not capable of running are welcome for display only.

Unrestored class allows the following:

- Touch up paint on skis and suspension only
- Replacement of worn parts with new old stock OEM parts
- Mechanical rebuild of drive train

Survivor class sleds must be all original, completely untouched except mechanical parts replaced as needed.

Unrestored class does NOT allow the following:

- Repainted tunnels or hoods
- Reupholstered or reproduction seat covers
- Reproduction decals
- Cosmetic restoration of drive train
- Polished tunnels or polished aluminum belly pans

Please list the snowmobiles you plan on bringing to Waconia for Sunday's show (list additional ones on separate sheet).
